TODAY'S GAME

It's a colorful football team that Head Coach Ted Shipkey brings into Mackay Stadium, and also one of the best to ever represent the Missoula, Montana, institution. The Grizzlies this year boast one of the best passers in the nation in Tommy Kingsford, and an outstanding pass-catching end in Ray Bauer. Kingsford currently ranks as one of the five top passers in the nation, and has sparked the Grizzly attack to most of its victories this season. Look for plenty of Kingsford aerials in Mackay stadium this afternoon. The receiving end of this passing combination, Ray Bauer, made first-string All-Pacific Coast Conference team when he broke the all-time Coast pass receiving record with 31 completions last season. Outstanding Montana ball carriers are Paul "Sonny" Wold and Bob "Lefty" Byrne. Wold has an impressive six yards per try average, and Byrne's is even better at seven yards per carry. At the full-back post the visitors have three capable men in Bo Laird, George Vucurovich and Gene Carlson.

In the line the Grizzlies have one of the best forward walls, both offensive and defensive, in its history. Jones and Antonick at guard, Lamley and Reed tackles, and Bauer and Nearing at ends, together with Kenny Campbell, carry the offensive load. On defense, Maus and Moomaw, ends; Miller and Murray, tackles; Hanson and Ingram, guards, with Stewart and Campbell as linebackers check the opposition. Carlson, Thomas and Murphy are the defending backs.

The Montanans go into today's battle with the Wolf Pack in good shape physically and mentally. This is one game they would like to win. Coach Ted Shipkey apparently has warned them that the Wolf Pack, even on the losing side of the season's ledger, can be dangerous and stubborn. Hold on to your seats, fans; this could be a thrilling battle here this afternoon.

NEVADA'S TWO SENIORS

HERMAN FISHER, FULLBACK
No. 35

This all-around athlete hails from Las Vegas, Nevada, where he was a star prep athlete in football, basketball and track. Herman continued to be a fine athlete when he entered the University of Nevada. This season the hard driving Fisher has come into his own as a defensive star for the Wolf Pack. His slashing tackles were especially evident in the Loyola game here in this stadium a few weeks ago. Look for this curly-haired senior to continue his good work in this, his last game wearing the silver and blue of Nevada.

CARMEL CARUSO, CENTER
No. 19

Carmel Caruso hails from Newtown Site, Pennsylvania. "Crusher," as his teammates call him, is definitely no misnomer. Caruso is a crushing linebacker and calls defensive signals for the Wolf Pack. Carmel has played outstanding football at Nevada and is enjoying his best year as a Senior. He was a regular in the Wolf Pack forward wall as a sophomore. Today will see his last performance on the turf here at Mackay stadium. Watch No. 19 today, and you'll be watching "Crusher" doing a fine job on both offense and defense for Nevada.

TED SHIPKEY, head football coach, joined the Montana University Athletic Staff last year. Born in Montana (Great Falls, Sept. 28, 1904), Ted moved to California where he was raised and educated. Played three years of Varsity football under the all-time great Glen "Pop" Warner at Stanford, where he was selected All-American End in his senior year. Rated by "Pop" Warner as the greatest pass receiving end he ever coached, Ted still holds a berth on the All-Time All-Star Pacific Coast Conference team. Started coaching career at Sacramento Junior College, 1927, moved to Arizona State at Tempe, 1930. Won one championship at the Border Conference school in three years. Won two more championships while head coach at University of New Mexico, 1937-42. His team once defeated Denver University in the SunBowl, then coached by Montana's new athletic director, Cac Hubbard. Ted was a Captain in the United States Air Corps in World War II. Returned to New Mexico, upon discharge, for one year, then joined the Los Angeles Dons coaching staff in 1946. Left the Dons in February 1949 to assume head coaching duties at Montana.

FRED ERDHAUS, assistant coach, also joined Montana's coaching staff last year. A graduate of University of Arizona in 1939 where he played end for three years, and lettered three times in basketball, baseball and swimming. Fred was head coach of the Los Angeles Bulldogs three years before coming to Montana. He played with the San Diego Navy eleven during the War; was assistant coach at Loyola University in Los Angeles, 1944; coached Santa Monica, Calif., high school team, 1939-43; and played on the pro Bulldogs and San Diego Bombers. His Bulldogs won two out of three title games in the Pacific Coast-Hawaii Pro League, 1946, '47 and '48.

GEORGE P. DAHLBERG, backfield coach and football scout. Known better in the Northwest to his friends as "Jiggs," Montana's head basketball coach was graduated from the University, '25, with scholastic honors as well as athletic honors. He spent twelve years coaching high schools in Montana and Washington, then returned to his alma mater in 1937 to take up the reins as basketball coach. Jiggs was basketball mentor and assisted with football until 1942 when he was called into service in the Army. He coached Fort Lawton baseball team to the Washington State semi-pro championship along with putting out some fine basketball teams. He returned to Montana in time for basketball winter of '45 and produced a fast squad that provided stiff competition with their fast breaking, aggressive style of play.

EDWARD S. CHINSKE, assistant football coach. Varsity baseball coach, and freshman basketball and football coach. Eddie came to Montana four years ago with a very impressive high school coaching career. In sixteen years he had the reputation of being one of the best coaches in Montana high school history. At Miles City and Missoula County High his teams won both basketball and football championships. Eddie was a Grizzly athlete himself and captain of the 1928 football squad. He still holds the best percentage of free throws made in entire Varsity competition at the University. He was graduated from Montana in 1930.

DICK JOHNSON, end coach. Assistant to Montana's freshman coach last year, Dick played quarterback and halfback. A marine corps veteran of four years, Dick has had wide and varied coaching experience for a young man of 25 years. Now a candidate for his M.A. in physical education.
